Project Description

The Terry Reilly Health Services (TRHS) Health Care for the Homeless Project serves persons who are homeless in Ada and Canyon Counties.

Services

TRHS provides medical, dental, and social services to individuals and families who are homeless through site-based clinics and shelter-based outreach clinics. The primary locations for delivery of homeless services are the Boise Clinic and the Nampa Clinic. TRHS also operates shelter-based outreach clinics at seven homeless shelters in the Boise/Nampa area. Services include primary health care, diabetic education, pharmacy, lab work, psychiatry, counseling, and case management. Dental care is provided through the TRHS-Boise Dental Clinic and the TRHSCanyon Dental Clinic.

Linkages

Shelter-based outreach clinics are operated at the Women's and Children's Alliance, City Light Women's Shelter, Valley Crisis Center, Boise Rescue Mission, Nampa Lighthouse shelter, Community House, and the Nampa Community Family Shelter. Through two U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) Supportive Housing Program grants, TRHS and the Ada County Housing Authority provide housing assistance and mental health treatment to homeless patients with co-occurring disorders. Substance abuse treatment, specialty care, and other support services are performed off-site through referral arrangements.
