The homeless remembered at Monday vigil

Duluth News Tribune
Published Monday, December 24, 2007

To Pastor Robyn Weaver of Glen Avon Presbyterian Church, the Christmas story is about Jesus making a home here on Earth. Monday, Weaver and more than 100 other people gathered in front of the Duluth federal courthouse building to remember those without homes. "I think it's important to take a moment and remember the gifts of home and family," Weaver said during CHUM's annual vigil for the homeless. Vigil participants donated two car-loads of warm clothing, blankets and sleeping bags. "They are ...
