Homeless memorial service tomorrow

James Markham Beasley, 55, a homeless man the Reno Police Department said was murdered by Finley Byrdette Fultz, 18, and Christopher Michael Maciolek, 19, both of Reno on Sept. 3, 2007. (WCSO)

December 20, 2007

Members of the Washoe County community will join together at noon Friday for the 4th Annual Homeless Persons Memorial Service. The service will be held at the 1st United Methodist Church, 209 W. First St., Reno.

The memorial service will honor homeless individuals who died during 2007. All of the names will be read, and their lives will be reflected upon.

Mr. James Markham Beasley, a homeless man who was killed on Sept. 3, 2007, will be among the names read.

The service is organized by the Reno Police Department, Family Promise of Reno/Sparks, 1st United Methodist Church and the Reno Area Alliance for the Homeless.

For more information about the service, contact Elizabeth Dorway, executive director of Family Promise of Reno/Sparks, at 284-5566 or go to www.familypromisereino.com.
