

From Joseph Benson, Chair, National Consumer Advisory Board:

God the Father
Streets of Gold
Peaceville, Heaven 11220

September 15, 2012

Dear Sarah Davidson:

In my name do I greet you, as I sit here in the quiet comfort of my paradise; I thought that I would review the lease that you signed with me years ago on the house you now live. On April 6, 1945, you agreed to move into this house and remain there as long as I deemed it necessary that the house was suitable for life.

In checking the terms of your lease, I found it necessary to condemn this house you now live in, because it is not in the same shape that it was in when you move in. Several repairs have been made on your house and the more the house is repaired, the more things need to be done. In other words, there is a leak in your building and your soul has got to move.

I understand that you have enjoyed living there and perhaps you have gotten comfortable there, but I see dangers that you don't see if you continue to stay there. If you stay there, I see many restless nights, I see a body aching and racked with pain, and furthermore I see some weary days and some lonely nights. Sarah, this letter serves as an official notice of eviction, and upon receipt of it you are to vacate the premises immediately.

Don't worry about where you are going to live after you are evicted. I have instructed John to write in the 14th chapters of his gospel that "in my house there are many mansions, if it was not so I would have told you." In other words, I have another house for you and there is plenty of good room. As your landlord, it is my job to check the property every now and then to see if it is fit to live in.

The new house that you will be living in is not made by hands but is eternal in the heavens. In this house, you don't have to worry about the floors squeaking or the roof leaking or the foundation giving away. In other words, it is a mansion bright and fair.

I have instructed my angel to deliver this notice to you on September 15, 2012. I have also instructed this angel not to return without you. Regardless of how you want to stay there, the angel will not return empty-handed.

Sarah, don't feel that I'm picking on you for evicting you from your loved ones, for one day they will receive the same notice that you have just received. For when I call, they will answer. As you prepare to depart, I want to remind your friends and loved ones to do one thing as they think of you during these times, and that is this:

Stop my friends,
Where you are, once was I
Where I am, so you must be
So prepare yourselves,
And follow me.....

Lovingly yours,
God the Father

From Reginald Hamilton, Co-chair, National Consumer Advisory Board:

A TRIBUTE TO HER HONOR, SARAH DAVIDSON

Ms. Sarah Davidson had a significant personal and spiritual impact on those of us who came within her sphere of influence.

Trained as a Registered Nurse, her empathy and concern for others grew early and transcended the challenges she was to later endure. She made a point of relating to you on your level. She encouraged you when you needed to be strengthened. She instructed you when she found you willing to accept the wisdom gained from her observations and experiences.

Ms. Sarah Davidson was a beautiful soul. She had the ability to see the best in you. She was an easy person to befriend. Her concerns were genuine. Her spirit was comforting.

NCAB has continued to grow because of her passion for its mission. NCAB has continued to grow because consumers valued her leadership even post her departing the Chair. NCAB has come to appreciate the value of its input and role as a full National Health Care for the Homeless Council committee, having surpassed its infancy under her guidance. Consumers now feel comfortable seeking NHCHC offices due to her involvement as a Governing Board Member of NHCHC. Ms. Sarah's commitment to consumer empowerment will continue to impact NCAB.

Ms. Sarah Davidson you are loved!!

September 28, 2012

Keep looking up,
Reginald O. Hamilton
NCAB Co-chair